The Albany Business Review's 40 Under 40 celebration attracted more than 750 business leaders and executives to downtown Albany, New York today.

The event, held at the Hilton Albany, recognizes 40 young professionals who you will be doing business with for years to come.

This year's class includes a mix of lawyers, bankers, a professor, an architect, real estate professionals, entrepreneurs and an executive in the solar industry.

The Business Review has been honoring exceptional young leaders for the past 16 years. This year's class brings the total number of 40 Under 40 alumni to 640. That group includes some of the most influential leaders and decision makers in the Albany, New York region.
